Position Summary:

The CAC AmeriCorps member serving as the Community Wellness Coordinator with Big Brothers Big Sisters of East Tennessee will organize, plan, and implement initiatives, activities, and communications that increase the well-being of our Bigs, Littles, their families and broader communities, as well as their environments.

Under established guidelines for public health, activities will include designing and communicating methods and opportunities for remaining (or becoming) physically active, leading BBBS-ETN's Hiking and Fit Clubs on environmentally educational excursions in partnership with Sierra Club, and planning and implementing large-scale match activities and trainings – either online or in person – for Bigs, Littles, and their families with focus on personal health, nutrition, substance misuse avoidance, and environmental stewardship. The Community Wellness Coordinator will also deepen partnerships and seek new ones, with organizations like the YMCA, Legacy Parks Foundation, and more.

The Community Wellness Coordinator will create and disseminate a newsletter on community wellness, to include healthy food, exercise, and avoiding opioids and other substances—as well as a focus on being active outdoors and serving as stewards of the environment. Additionally, the AmeriCorps member will assist with enrolling children coming into the program, including interviewing parents and youth. The member will build strong relationships with families whose children are waiting for a mentor and will offer program of interest to these stakeholders.

This position will provide direct support to our matches, including sharing resources for families affected by Tennessee's opioid epidemic, and they will lead trainings for volunteers using new modules on health-related activities and on alcohol, drug, and opioid abuse. Additionally, they might also conduct match meetings between children and volunteers, allowing BBBS-ETN to make more matches than possible at current staffing levels. The community wellness coordinator will place particular focus on engaging Littles and communities of colors – in both health- and environmental-related activities and trainings.

The Big Brothers Big Sisters of East Tennessee team is dedicated to professional development. AmeriCorps members would be eligible for our $150 training budget for each staff member. Further, as a member of Knoxville's Alliance for Better Nonprofits, BBBS-ETN also receive free trainings which this person could participate in. Both our development and our fundraising team regularly train; currently, we're learning about ACEs and trauma-informed care. While not a day-to-day necessity for this position, the person in this position would be welcome to participate.
